

City Seminary

Sacramento

Spring Semester, 2006 Course Descriptions

OT202/602, Old Testament Survey II: A study of the Old Testament books (Isaiah through Malachi), considering authorship, date, occasion, theme, purpose and outline.

Instructor: Rev. Michael Voytek, M.Div.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Mon 6:30-8:10 PM

ST151/551, Biblical Ethics: The development of a Christian world-and-life view. Examination of the Scriptural basis for ethics, including the role of the Ten Commandments in the construction and application of ethics to the modern world. Church-state issues will also be considered.

Instructor: Rev. Jim West, M.Div.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Mon 8:15-9:55 PM

CH241/641, Medieval Church History: A study of the doctrinal and organizational development of the church in the Middle Ages. The effect of scholasticism and the sacerdotal theology on European church and society will be considered.

Instructor: Dr. Frank Walker, Ph.D.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Tues 6:30-8:10 PM

ST321/621, Christology: A consideration of the Covenant of Redemption and the Covenant of Grace, as effectuated in the person and work of Christ. Attention will be given to the natures, offices and states of Christ.

Instructor: Dr. Frank Walker, Ph.D.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Thurs 6:30-8:10 PM

OT351/651, Old Testament Introduction: Investigates the evidence bearing on the authenticity and trustworthiness of the Old Testament, including the establishment of the canon, history and versions of the text and methods of interpretation. Emphasis will be given to the Mosaic authorship of the Pentateuch and the negative effects of the Graf-Wellhausen theory.

Instructor: Rev. Michael Voytek, M.Div.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Thurs 8:15-9:55 PM

Prerequisite: OT102, Elements of Hebrew Grammar II

AP231/631, Philosophy of Religion: Examines of the nature of "religion" from a Biblical perspective, showing that Biblical Christianity is the only religion (all other so-called "religions" being corruptions of the one true religion). This course will consider the definition of religion, the relationship between religion and revelation, and the relationship between God and evil.

Instructor: Rev. Eric. D. Bristely, Th.M.

Hours: Two credit hours

Day/Time: Sat 9:00-10:40 AM